

Senior Internships

Senior Internships is a programme that Surrey Heartlands CCG have launched, aiming to get those at retirement age back into the workplace. Even though some companies still expect people to retire at the age of 65, many of us are in great health and more than willing to continue working well past that age. Surrey Heartlands CCG really acknowledges the value of a retired persons accumulate skills and wisdom and we would be honoured to have you on this journey with us.

What's the role?

Academy Support Project Officer

Supporting the Academy in the delivery of collaboration, leadership and innovation

How much will I get paid?

Across all NHS organisations, we work in accordance with 'Agenda for Change'. This is the current NHS grading and pay system which harmonises pay scales and career progression arrangements. The Agenda for Change system allocates posts to set pay bands by considering aspects of the job, such as skills involved.

Banding goes from band 1 to band 9 subdivided into points.

All of the above roles are of a band 5 level. In line with Agenda for Change, full time salary for a new starter at the band 5 level is:

£24,907

What about retraining?

We want to build on the skills and knowledge that you already possess by offering you the opportunity to come on our training courses that we offer to all staff at Surrey Heartlands CCG.

Any additional training will be given to you by your line manager and colleagues when starting with us.

What is the working pattern like?

We recognise that you may have different priorities now, besides career development and we are happy to accommodate this in whichever way possible.

We also offer flexible working options including but not limited to part time, 9-day fortnight, compressed hours and remote working.

We want to offer different ways of working to suit your needs!

How do I apply?

If you are interested in any of the roles please email syheartlandscg.pod@nhs.net with your CV and a personal statement, explaining that you are interested in the Senior Internship position and we will send you the job description with more information. If you are unable to email us, please call Emma Zaletnik on 07802772122.
